Cincinnati, Feb. 5.—A dispatch from Marquette says Dr. Kettner is there with his wife. This ends the theory which made his wife the victim of the Fort Thomas murder.

Result of the Aldermanic Fight Brought Some Surprises--Thomas Dahl, Capt. Stevens and David Sang Have Very Small Majorities.

The great victory over won, in all America and it would be heard far to the North Pole to the hot place. He said that he would like to see the victor eat and plenty to drink (for all, not them) his politics. Incidentally he said that he was a Democrat.

D. H. Saunders was then called for and made a flowery speech winding up with a flourish.

Henry Dvorschak then mounted the desk. "Hunk," he merely wanted to call the speaker, "I am glad that you and his wife have had for once stood together and he, she said, showed what it can do if it is not too late."

The crowd then filed out with a wild yell to "bye-bye the Laysman," but did not forget to give the speaker a good kick with their jubilations all night.

Tonight the Truckee men will have a large party at the new hall which is now in the postoffice building. There will be brass band music and oratory sufficient to last for two or three weeks.

THE ALDERMANIC FIGHT.

There were some surprises in the all-out effort to elect a new mayor. It was generally supposed that Childs Events would be the strongest man and would be easily, George P. Ashcroft, a former mayor, would be the surest confirmation. He has been very sore in the City Commission and has been out of the city for some time, but he was expected to come back at them. In the Third ward I would think it was a foregone conclusion that he would be elected. In the Fourth it was generally considered that William would win out. In Fifth the result was surprising. It was expected that Childs would be elected by only three votes. The contest was very close. The result was that they thought Childs had won until the last ballot was in. The result was that William Hansen went in with a safe majority. During the day the result was not known. When the Hansen was expected to be the winner. The Seventh ward fight was a pretty close one. It was expected that the Hansen would win by a large number of votes to spare. Kennedy made a hard fight for it. The result was that the Hansen was one of the surprises. He was elected by a large number of votes. The defeated vote on mayor and aldermen was a surprise. The result was that the Hansen was elected by a large number of votes.

NOT FILED

Judgment For Mrs. Cora Darwin-Aspinwall's Divorce Not Yet Entered.

Was Ordered By the Court But Not Placed of Record.

Carlton County Printing Matter Before the Court Again Today.

According to the records in the office of the clerk of the district court, Cora Alice Darwin-Aspinwall, whose marriage at Hudson, Wis., has just been made public, has never been legally divorced, though practically she has been divorced.

The complaint in the divorce proceedings was filed in October last. Jan. 3 the case came up before Judge Edson, and three days later he granted the petition and filed his order giving her a divorce, reserving her maiden name of Darwin, and ordering that judgment be entered.

So far the proceeding was proper, and to all intents and purposes Mrs. Aspinwall was divorced. But when she was married to Clyde Knapp on Jan. 20 the judgment and decree had never been entered, and consequently had never gone into effect. Nor has it been entered today.

The situation is a peculiar one. The law is very lenient as regards technicalities in marriage matters, and just what the legal effect of the situation is would take a court to decide. The Hudson, Wis., court is undoubtedly technically correct in its decision, but it is a question whether it is a question.

THE PRINTING MATTER. In court room No. 3, Judge Edson this morning was hearing the squabble over the Carlton county printing, in which the Vielle, of Carlton, and the Pine Knot, of Clonquet, are involved. The Vielle claims that he has a cent per description for the tax list, and 5 cents per folio for all other matters, while the Pine Knot's bid was as follows:

Tax list, 2 1/2 cents per description; financial proceedings, 25 cents per folio for the first publication and 12 1/2 for each subsequent publication; official proceedings, 25 cents per folio for first and 6 cents for each subsequent insertion. After considering the two bids, the board was to bring the matter before the people rather than to have it done cheaply and not have it done at all.

Therefore, in view of the large circulation and cheaper subscription rates of the Pine Knot, the contract was given to it. But the Vielle claimed that it was illegal not to let the tax list at least to the lowest bidder, as the law provides.

In his answer the Pine Knot admits a good deal, alleging only that the board had no right to give the contract to anyone but the lowest bidder, thus saving the effect: "What are you going to do about it?"

The case was still on trial this afternoon. Mary Orr has sued G. T. Jones et al to foreclose a mortgage on a lot in Transfer division, given to secure a note for $500. Walter Ayers is the attorney.

QUITELY WEDDED.

Mrs. Cora Aspinwall and Clyde Knapp Married.

Duluth friends of the contracting parties will learn with surprise of the wedding of Mrs. Cora Darwin-Aspinwall and Clyde K. Knapp, both of whom are well known here where the bride has been up to the date of the interesting event a resident, and where the young couple will be sharing by friends of the principals in other cities.

The ceremony was performed at Hudson, Wis., that Greta Green of the state toward which the feet of so many lovers turn, on Jan. 20 last, at the rectory of St. Paul's Episcopal church. Rev. W. N. McVittie officiating. Mrs. Aspinwall and Mr. Knapp left for St. Paul the next day where their young dream was to become a reality.

At the wedding were present as witnesses, George W. Kelly, of the rectory, and Michael Dorgan, the liverrman, who acted as well as love's champion. The ceremony of carrying out the recommendations of the communication will place the figures on the probable makes them almost as much of a luxury as real estate.

THE SECRET OF SUCCESS.

Many People Could Become Rich if They Only Knew How.

Statistics show that 95 per cent of all persons engaged in business in the United States fail. In other words, only 5 per cent of all our business men are fortunate enough to make a competency and keep it. Do you know what is the secret of this? Wise men, who have investigated the matter from every angle, have concluded that the weak, irritable, dyspeptic persons, who are in such a state of nervous prostration, that they are unable to do anything, are the ones who fail. Is there any way in which such people can improve their health? Yes, undoubtedly there is. Many people have fortunately discovered that it is quite possible and some of them are giving others the benefit of their experience.

FLOODS

Bound Brook, New Jersey,
Deluged By the Raritan River.

A Furious Fire Devastates
Part of the Village Not Flooded.

Fatal Bridge Accident Near Bristol, Connecticut--A Broken Dam.

Somerville, N. J., Feb. 7.—While the loss of property at Bound Brook last night based on the meagre information obtainable in season for the morning papers were considered great, it is now reasonably certain that but one life was lost. While the flood was at its height, a young man named Miller entered a row boat intending to rescue a family whom the rising water had driven to take refuge in the upper part of their house, but before he had time to do so, the swift current upset the boat and Miller was not seen from that time.

Last night when the last passenger who had reached this city left Bound Brook, the flood had begun to subside, the water had spread backwards from the river about 1000 feet, and the residents within the submerged section had been forced to leave the lower part of their houses and take refuge in the upper stories. At 3 o'clock this morning the water was nearly ten feet high in the main street of the town. The flood was caused by the heavy rain.

The water in the Meadow Brook, one quarter of a mile east of the head of Bound Brook, also overflowed its banks. It swept on both sides of the Central bridge, submerging the bridge and filling along the tracks. The surrounding country for a quarter of a mile, while the citizens were trying to rescue people from the houses that were in danger of being swept away by the flood, a fire was discovered.

It was seen in the lumber yards of L. D. Cook & Co. An alarm was turned in, threatened to carry men off their feet. Brook, thinking they would be unable to cope with the fire, sent word to Somerville for assistance. Engines were started for Bound Brook, but they had not gotten far outside of the limits of the city when the fire broke out. The roads being impassable on account of the floods, citizens were unable to do anything but light the fire and let the flames or rescue property, because of the swiftness of the current of water rushing through the streets, which threatened to carry men off their feet. Under these circumstances the fire had simply to burn itself out.

It is thought that twenty houses have either been destroyed or are in danger of being wrecked by the flood. Many small outbuildings belonging to farmers on the outskirts of Bound Brook were carried away by the flood and were swept down the river. The water was seen from their homes by the fire and the flood took refuge at the First Presbyterian church, but the flames were obliged to leave it. All escaped. There are reports current of loss of life in Bound Brook, beyond that of Mr. Miller, but the basis of the rumor cannot at present be ascertained.

Many of the residents of Bound Brook who business is in New York were unable to reach their homes last night. Much live stock belonging to farmers on the outskirts of Bound Brook was carried away by the flood. The telephone wires in the village's drug store were severed by the water. At 9 o'clock last night, the telegraph operators in the Lehigh Valley and the railroad depots sent messages, for a time, while standing in water up to their knees, but finally when they were unable to get higher they were compelled to leave their posts.

The water got so high that it put out the fires in the Raritan Wire works and leaves Raritan with a water level high above the normal. The water in the canal, which were twenty-five yards apart before the water began to rise yesterday afternoon, were allowed to rise. The wooden mills in Somerville were flooded and work had to be suspended.

DAM GAVE WAY.
Rumor That Twenty-Five
People Are Missing.

Morristown, N. J., Feb. 7.—The dam at Pochontas lake broke last night and all the lower part of this city was inundated. So far as is known no lives have been lost, although twenty-five persons are missing. Their disappearance is creating intense excitement. All day the melting snow has swollen the streams and poured into the lake, which is a mile and a half long by three-quarters of a mile wide. It was covered by eight inches of ice, and the whole was held in check by the railroad and thimblest wooden dam.

The water rose a half foot through Morristown, to the brin, and the water ran over. Crowds of people gathered to view the spreading waters. Suddenly with a great crash, a section of the dam, eighteen feet wide, went down and a wall of water sixteen feet high swept into the valley, quickly followed by the thousands of this city.

In ten minutes the water rose ten feet in the streams. The embankment of the Delaware & Lackawanna railroad runs through the town. The Whippany river flows under this embankment through a sixteen-foot culvert. The immense volume of water rushing against the dam, backed up through the town, rising in the houses and in the streets. The water was in the town in ten minutes. The water was in the town in ten minutes. The water was in the town in ten minutes.

Mr. Barrett rose to a question of personal privilege to correct what he said was an unintentional misrepresentation of himself in the public prints. This led to a stirring incident. He said that Mr. Pearson had made an unwarranted attack on the loyalty of his state which he defended as loyal as any state in the union. Mr. Pearson had said that North Carolina had followed South Carolina out of the Union and had gotten whipped along with the talisman state. In a local way, Mr. Barrett continued Mr. Talbert, "I declared that we were not whipped, but had won our selves out of the hands of the other fellows. In the heat of the moment," he continued, "and impulsively, I said that South Carolina was not ashamed of her part that she took in it; that she was proud of it, and that I had no endorsement, secession, then, I thought we were right. I think so yet, and that under the same circumstances, surrounded by the same conditions, that I would do just the same thing again. Now, Mr. Speaker, I repeat it."

Mr. Barrett jumped up at these words and asked that the words be taken down. Several members appealed to him not to do so, and the speaker asked Mr. Barrett to sit down. Mr. Barrett seemed to hesitate, when Mr. Talbert again got on his feet and declared that he would not be willing to have his words taken down. "I want to see if a member can violate his oath in this fashion."

The chair understood that the gentleman from South Carolina was not repeating what he had said on a former occasion," said Speaker Reed. Mr. Barrett replied that, in that case, he had a point of order to submit. Mr. Crisp, the Democratic leader, however, at this point, crowded into the arena and moved that Mr. Talbert be permitted to explain. The words were then read at the clerk's desk and Mr. Barrett then formally made the point of order, that when a statement made by a member has been called in question, and he deliberately reiterated it, it constituted a new statement and a new offense.

"He has said, and has repeated the statement, that under certain circumstances he believed in secession. I propose now to offer a resolution of censure," said Mr. Barrett. By this time the excitement on the floor was intense. Mr. Crisp said he had never known an instance when a member was called to order and a motion was made that he be allowed to explain his statement, that such motion was not considered.

To this Mr. Barrett replied, that he had no objection to the gentleman from South Carolina explaining, at the proper time, but that he had no objection to the gentleman having taken an oath to sustain the constitution of the United States, and he would not allow any circumstances attempt to overthrow and humiliate the government. There was more parliamentary squabbling between Mr. Crisp and Mr. Barrett during which the house filled rapidly, with the excitement constantly rising.

The speaker finally cut the matter short by saying that if the house was not satisfied with Mr. Talbert's explanation, the resolution might be offered. The speaker decided that Mr. Crisp's motion was in order. "I take it for granted," said Mr. Dingley, rising, "that the house does not intend to vote on a resolution of censure without acceding the gentleman from South Carolina an opportunity to explain." The generous words won the applause of the Democratic side, and Mr. Talbert availed himself of the opportunity, and explained that he had risen to correct a misrepresentation. He had no idea that the press intended to misrepresent him intentionally. South Carolina, he needed to say, was as loyal and true to the Union as any state in the Union. The circumstances under which he seceded could not exist again and he was glad of it. (Democratic applause.)

TREASURY

Representative Talbert, of South Carolina, Startles
the House Today.

Endorsed Secession and Would Secede Again Under Similar Conditions.

Reed, Crisp, Dingley and Barrett Mixed Up in the Heated Discussion.

Washington, Feb. 7.—The debate on the free silver substitute in the bond bill proceeded steadily in the house today. The house met at 10:30 o'clock, with less than thirty members present and only a few stragglers in the galleries. Mr. Newland awoke the empty echoes of the vast hall with a vigorous argument in favor of the free and independent coinage of silver. He asserted that not a single debtor nation in the world had maintained the gold standard except the United States, and we had done so at the price of exhausting our resources. Mr. Hartman and Mr. Kern, followed in favor of concurrence, and Mr. Tucker in favor of the non-concurrence.

Mr. Talbert rose to a question of personal privilege to correct what he said was an unintentional misrepresentation of himself in the public prints. This led to a stirring incident. He said that Mr. Pearson had made an unwarranted attack on the loyalty of his state which he defended as loyal as any state in the union. Mr. Pearson had said that North Carolina had followed South Carolina out of the Union and had gotten whipped along with the talisman state. ## Nothing Under The Sun but a Half Price Sale Would do It!

January and February gave frequent and almost ceaseless audiences to King Winter last year, and they were pre-eminently Overcoat and Suit months.

This year King Winter has been most unkind—with our beautiful, warm, tropical weather, bright sun-shining, snow-melting days, rivaling even the Sunny South—the Clothing man has suffered most severely. When we bought our tremendously large stock, we never figured on this kind of treatment. Many Clothiers found themselves in a very uncomfortable position on this account; at least that was the case with us. We never counted on this weather set-back, and as time went on and winter advanced into the lap of spring, we found ourselves loaded to the muzzle with Winter Goods, which had to be paid for. We had to do something—and that's why we put on this wonderful

SALE

That it's a success beyond all expectations because of the magnificent values we are giving, is speaking mildly. We have sold stacks and stacks of good Merchandise, but it takes a long time of ceaseless buying to reduce a stock like ours, and even now that we are about to take our Annual Inventory we find piles and piles more of

Men's Suits, Overcoats, Trousers, Boys' and Children's Clothes, Hats, Caps and Shoes, Smoking Jackets, Bath Robes, And Dressing Gowns,

Than we ought to have, and we frankly admit that we are willing to make these profit sacrifices to get these stocks down to proper proportions. We can only take the loss smiling; profit by our experience and buy more conservatively in future.

OF SPECIAL INTEREST:

Just to help a good thing along, we have placed in this great sale all our SPRING OVERCOATS, SUITS, TROUSERS and MACINTOSHES for the reason that we wish to benefit, as far as possible, our esteemed patronage and have this sale go on record and linger as a pleasing remembrance as one of the most satisfactory that this city has ever known.

Will be a great buying festival; come to the Feast of Good Clothes Cheap, as extra preparations have been made to serve you promptly and well.

RENEWAL

Duluth Telephone Company Anxious to Get a Franchise Extension.

Will Endeavor to Get it From the Present Council.

New Council Will Probably Be Opposed to Granting Franchises.

An effort is to be made by the Duluth Telephone company to get a franchise from the city before the present council goes out of existence. The new officers were elected on a platform which practically prohibits the granting of franchises, and the company would probably have considerable trouble in getting what they wish, hence the desire to procure it now. The franchise under which the company is now operating will expire in two or three years, and there is not much time to be lost before getting a renewal or extension in the shape of a new one.

The ordinance has not been presented to the council, but a number of the aldermen have been questioned, and have been informed of some of the main features of the franchise they will be asked to give. The time for which it is asked is thirty years. A number of concessions are to be made to the city, but it is not the disposition of the company to fix the amount to be charged for the use of telephones. That is a matter which the company claims the city has nothing to do with. Provisions are also made in the ordinance for putting the wires in subways in the business portion of the city, and for paying the city as compensation for these subways 10 cents per lineal yard, or about $350 a mile per year. No other provision is made for remunerating the city.

There are some of the more prominent features of the franchise asked for, it is not known just when it will be presented to the council, but it may come up next Monday.

Whether the council will act on it or not is another question. One alderman said today that he thought the ordinance would feel that it ought to be left over to the new council; that it would look like railroading to put it through now.

DULUTH AND OSWEGO.

To Be the Terminals of John Gordon's Line.

The dispatch from Buffalo, printed in the Evening Wisconsin, of Milwaukee, which gave currency to a report that a new lake line has been organized for the Duluth trade, has developed a few facts regarding the movements of John Gordon. A Milwaukeean possessed of some knowledge in that direction says that Mr. Gordon will endeavor to establish a line of steamers between Duluth and Oswego. Satisfactory traffic arrangements have been made with the New York, Ontario & Western railway for both west and eastbound freight, and Mr. Gordon is now seeking to obtain, through lease rather than purchase, package freight and grain-carrying steamers of suitable size for the Welland canal trade. Just how many steamers Mr. Gordon proposes to start with the Wisconsin's informant was unable to say, but he knows that the search for steamers has begun.

The news of the new line will prove very gratifying to Oswego people, who have been deprived of regular water communication with Western ports ever since the disruption of the old Northern Transportation company.

Black Was the Winner. There was curling at Glen Avon last night, and D. R. Black's rink defeated R. J. MacLeod's rink in a warm, close game. The rinks and scores follow:

Alex Macrae, D. R. Black skip—13 from Gibson. J. E. Callin, MacLeod skip—11 from Gibson. G. F. MacKenzie, J. E. Callin skip—12 from Gibson. Tonight there will be a game for the curlers' buttons between Frank Benson's rink and D. R. Black's rink. Benson's rink won the curlers' buttons, having won them from Donald Morrison's rink, which held them all winter.

MYSTERY

Pearl Bryan's Death Probably Accomplished By Means of Cocaine.Druggist Ulen Says He Sold the Drug to Jackson
Personally.Jackson Admits This But Says He Gave Walling
the Drug.

Cincinnati, Feb. 8.—The slow process of solving the Pearl Bryan murder mystery now points to Thursday night as the night of the murder, and the use of cocaine as a means of the vile end. Druggist Ulen, who lives at Sixty-sixth street, has notified the police that on Wednesday before the murder, Jackson called at his place and asked for a drachm of cocaine. The druggist had not so large a quantity on hand, but told Jackson that if he would call later he could supply him. Jackson said he wanted it for a patient. He did return later, but not having enough money to pay for the drachm took a less quantity. Ulen fully identified it in many respects, although no further identification was needed. Mrs. Stanley insisted on the remains being delivered to the undertaker from her home, who was with her. The officers refused to give the body to the undertaker until next Monday.

Meanwhile the search for the head will be kept up and if it is found by Monday an inquest will be held and the body turned over to the family. The officers are continuing their search for the head today, in the sewers, at the Dayton sand bar and elsewhere and have a large number of workmen employed.

Officers have secured the original copy of a letter from Jackson to William Wood, in which Jackson outlined a letter for Wood to write to Mrs. Bryan and sign the name of Pearl. This letter was to be sent to a trusted friend at Lafayette, named Smith, who was to put it in the postoffice at that place and leave the Bryan family under the impression that Pearl had gone to Lafayette, so that her whereabouts afterward might not be traced. The letter shows that the plot had been contemplated for weeks and that Wood was communicating with Jackson, Fred Maxwell, of Dayton, Ky., on last Monday, saw a man get off the street car with a package and proceed toward the Dayton sand bar. Today Maxwell visited the city prison and identified Walling among other prisoners, as the man who had taken the package to the sand bar.

WILL WOOD IN GREEN CASTLE. Indianapolis, Feb. 8.—A special from Green Castle, Ind., says: Will Wood, arrested for complicity in the Pearl Bryan murder and number one $5000 bond, reached Green Castle late last night and was kept in hiding. Excitement there was so intense that friends of his father, residing near the M. E. church of that district, warned him that his son was in danger of being lynched. He and the young man hurried to the station and left on the next train at 2 o'clock. They say they are going to Cincinnati.

BANK ROBBERIES AT WORK. St. Joseph, Mo., Feb. 8.—Bank robbers made a bold raid on the State National bank at Savannah, Mo., sixteen identified the prisoner as the man who bought the cocaine. Jackson himself admits the purchase, but says it was for Walling. He is in harmony with his story to Secretary Tibbets, of the Y. M. C. A., that Walling was to be the active party in producing an abortion. Jackson persistently says he did not see Pearl after Wednesday, although the saloonkeeper, Wallingford, says Jackson and a woman, corresponding in appearance to the description of Pearl Bryan, were at his saloon together on Friday night. Walling, however, finds it difficult to tell clearly where he spent Thursday night. He spoke with regret last night of his inability to remember how he spent Thursday night, though he could clearly tell where he was on both Wednesday and Friday night.

Later, he said it came to him through dreams, and he went on to tell of having written a letter at the Dennison house and playing pool at the Atlantic garden and going to a saloon about 11 o'clock, but could not tell anything further. The landlady where he roomed accounts for him up to about 10:30, but she cannot tell whether he remained in the house after that or not. There is no trace of Pearl Bryan after she left the Indian house on Wednesday. Somebody must know beside the murderers, but so far no one has volunteered to give the information to the police. Death by cocaine. It is said is more difficult to trace than by any other drug, and hence the continued mystery in the case. Both the prisoners having now been provided with counsel, the probability of further statements is lessened.

Walling today repeated his statements about Jackson securing the cocaine and the cab, and these points are confirmed by the druggist and others. Since Jackson confessed yesterday to the clergy, he has become zealous in his devotions. He is reading the Bible today and wrote his mother at Green Castle, Ind., a letter which was intended to cheer her very great. Druggist Ulen stated that this letter agreed with the confession made last night in which he said he advised Wood to send Pearl Bryan here and then secured Walling for the operation. In addition to the large number of friends of the different families that came from Green Castle, Ind., yesterday, there are others today. Mrs. Stanley, a sister of Pearl Bryan, arrived today and after viewing the body miles from here, last night. They beat the night watchman into insensibility and then effected an entrance to the saloon. Here he secured about $500 worth of stamps belonging to the post-office, but was unable to open the safe containing the funds of the bank. Three characters who have been hanging around the town are suspected.

SUFFERING IN ARMENIA.
Awful Fate of Many Women and Girls.

Boston, Feb. 8.—The pressing need for relief in the distressed region of Turkey is illustrated by a letter from Anatolia received here today in which is said: "The refugees wander about from morning till evening begging and are obliged to return empty handed, hungry, weary, cold and almost dead, to sleep on the stones."

Continuing the writer says: "Hundreds of women have been violated in Turkish houses. Some have embraced Mohammedanism because of their wretchedness, and some have given their daughters to Turks. At this place 1000 houses have been burned and 2000 persons have been sacrificed. The remainder are terrified by an awful threat of the Turks who say: 'Your turn is coming, we will massacre you later.'"

A letter from Kechi states that more than 500 plundered people are in the extreme destitution in that vicinity. The government has begun to collect taxes in the plundered villages. It is stated, and up to the present there is no relief in sight. A letter from Kechi states that the work of relief which has already been begun there, saying there are 15,000 persons who need help.

"For four days," says a correspondent, "we have been looking to 500 persons and get the certificates from the leading Armenians. Even with these restrictions the number is very great. Besides the hungry, many are naked and have neither bedding nor fuel. At present we can give them only bread."

Kranos states that the local government gives no permission for relief work and does not look on it with favor. In fact without positive and direct order from the Viceroy, which it is impossible to obtain, this work is dangerous.

Washington, Feb. 8.—There were exactly sixteen members on the floor and nineteen spectators in the galleries when the house reconvened at 10:30 this morning. The legislative day of yesterday still continued as the house had been in recess over night.

Mr. Corlies and Mr. Boatner spoke in favor of non-concurrence, and Mr. Miller and Mr. Bartlett in favor of concurrence. While Mr. Bartlett was speaking, Mr. Boatner by a reference to the state of "Silver Dollar" Bland, Gen. Hatch and other silver leaders, drew forth an indignant protest from Mr. Bartlett against the treacherous man-

SPEECH BY MR. TOWNE.

Eloquent and Logical Speech in the House Today.

Washington, Feb. 8.—(Special to The Herald.)—(Mr. Towne obtained the floor this afternoon and began an eloquent and logical speech in favor of free coinage. A large attendance of members was present and accorded him close attention. He said the issue of free coinage was one that could not be killed and would not die. The time has passed when the party can make an issue, and for the future the issues will make the parties. The chief point for discussion, he said, is as to what constitutes sound money. Do we have it now, and if not how can we best obtain it? It is not a matter of sentiment, but business. It is not a question to be settled by bloodshed, revolution or secession, but by calm deliberation.

It is certain that Mr. Towne will be one of the oratorical successes among the new members.

Belief That New Mexico's Governor Stands in With the Fighters.His Peculiar Advice to the Sheriff of Las Cruces
Today.Delegate Catron Says Thornton is in Collusion With Dan Stuart.

El Paso, Texas, Feb. 8.—After a stay here over night, Governor Thornton left this morning for Santa Fe. The governor got in from Las Cruces on the train that brought Peter Maher to town last night, and curiously enough the pair took the same train out of here this morning. Sheriff Ascaso, who accompanied the fighters to El Paso, returned with him to Las Cruces this morning and was advised by the governor that his vigilance was unnecessary as the federal government has relieved him of all responsibility in the matter.

Just where the governor obtains this interpretation of the law is not known here, lawyers arguing that under the new federal act the government must be called upon by the local authorities for assistance in suppressing fights before the troops can be ordered out. Horace Leeds, the Atlantic City man, who is to meet Jack Everhardt, got in this morning with Capt. Glori, and with every other fighter who is to take part, is on the ground.

George Siler, the referee arrives in the morning from Chicago. Governor Ahumada, of Chihuahua, is expected at Juarez today. The quiet town is in holiday attire to receive him. His excellency's arrival, it is understood, is to look over the Mexican border lines with a view to protecting Mexican territory against an invasion by the pugilists.

CATRON'S ACCUSATION.
Says the Governor is in Collusion With Dan Stuart.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Delegate Catron, of New Mexico, has greatly displeased at the impression which has been formed that he was acting under the advice of Governor Thornton, of New Mexico, in his efforts to prevent prize fighting in the territory. Mr. Catron not only denies that he has received the governor's co-operation, but makes the direct charge that Governor Thornton abetted Dan Stuart in his efforts to bring off the fight. Mr. Catron made the following statement to the Associated Press:
"The statement has been published substantially that the action taken by me on the prize fighting bill was on the advice and at the request of Governor Thornton. Governor Thornton never consulted with me, never advised me, nor requested me to do anything in regard to that bill. From information which I have received from New Mexico, I believe that Governor Thornton, while pretending that he would like to stop the fight, was actually acting in collusion with Dan Stuart in order to have the fight come off, had advised Stuart that there was no law in New Mexico which would enable him or the authorities to stop the fight, and substantially informed Stuart that the fight might go on, although he could not openly consent."

As soon as the bill was signed last night the officials telegraphed the United States attorney in New Mexico to see that the law was enforced.

KENTUCKY'S PUZZLE.
Not Much Change in the Senatorial Deadlock.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 8.—A special to the Post from Frankfort, says: The flurry of renewed interest in the senatorial race which was created by the early morning report that Senator Ogilvie was unable to be out, subsided when the feeble senator came into the house chamber twenty minutes before the time to ballot. The report that the Blackburn people proposed to make a final rally to elect him had also fallen flat and a very small attendance in the lobbies when the ballot began.

More than four have been made for a week were announced. One hundred and ninety were present and fifty-eight necessary to a choice. The anti-Blackburn Democrats united on Richard T. Tyler, Weissinger, Carroll, Spright, Violet and Walker voting for him. The ballot resulted: Hunter, 58; Blackburn, 52; Tyler, 5; Bates, 1. The joint caucus with the view of casting of place floating over it adjourned until Monday noon.

OHIO REPUBLICANS.
State Convention in March Will

Columbus, Ohio, Feb. 8.—The Republican state convention is to be held in Columbus March 10 and 11, and Joseph B. Foraker is to be temporary chairman. He was selected on motion of Judge Miller, of Steubenville, and seconded by Charles E. Hard, who are both known as McKinley men. A resolution was adopted, endorsing McKinley for president.

MRS. HAMMOND SATISFIED.
Says Her Husband is Very Well Treated.

Washington, Feb. 8.—Secretary Olney has received the following cablegram from Mrs. Hammond dated yesterday at Pretoria, relative to the treatment of her husband, John Hays Hammond: "Because of my husband's ill health, due to prison confinement, the government allows me to remove him to a private house where I can personally attend him. The preliminary examinations are proceeding and the treatment of the prisoners is good."

IT IS UNIMPORTANT.
How Spain Regards the Belligerency Resolutions.

Madrid, Feb. 8.—The government organs regard the resolution of the United States senate committee on foreign relations, in favor of the recognition of the Cuban insurgents as belligerents, as being of no importance. They declare that the relations between the Spanish and the American governments are very cordial, and that the campaign in Cuba has not changed them. Marshal Martinez de Campos closed last evening with the queen regent.

DUNRAVEN WILL APOLOGIZE.
London, Feb. 8.—The Saturday Review today mentions a rumor to the effect that a fitting and ample atonement from Lord Dunraven to the New York Yacht club is already on its way to the United States.

Mr. Bartlett, "because men who are not in the majority seek to control. I want to say that whether in the majority or minority, wherever the Democratic flag floats there will be my stand."

"If the Democratic national convention adopts a gold platform and nominates a gold candidate," interposed Mr. Skinner, "will you support the ticket?" "I will vote for any man," replied Mr. Bartlett, "whom the majority of the Democrats nominate in convention."

"Then you are willing to sacrifice the interests of the people on the altar of party?"

"I am willing to forego temporarily the consummation which must eventually come, and can only come through the Democratic party."

"You think," he said, "that the general has gone to heaven?"

"Yes," answered the old man, "but I don't think it depends on what."

"Oh," said the man, on of de gen'ral wanted to know if he was a Christian."

Bull calves destined for easier opening but as usual the offerings of wheat were light on the exchange, and when the local crowd attempted to move this upturn occurred. On the advance it took the market a little time to get on its feet again, but the market has reached the level of last week's wheat sale. The market for sale. There was a sudden drop in the price of wheat, but it was not an important line of long wheat which the market was looking for. The market was quiet. Liverpool reported few offerings of wheat. Russian wheat, though abundant, is not being sold in large quantities. The shortage of supplies there and the uncertainty of the situation being a serious price. There was a weak feeling at the close. The market was quiet on Monday, but we do not see any change.

THE WEATHER.

DEU TO IMPURE WATER.
Albany, N. Y., is having trouble with its drinking water, which is believed to be impure and to be the cause of the heavy mortality in that city from typhoid fever. The Buffalo Enquirer says: "The death rate of Albany, which seems to have every advantage of natural position, is sensationally large. Why should a comparatively small city, the capital of the state, situated on a great river, with every advantage in the way of facility for drainage, have a death rate of 23.45? There must be great carelessness or gross mismanagement somewhere. Is the water supply responsible?"

The Rochester Post-Express, which has been studying the statistics of mortality given in the bulletin of the state board of health for the past year, contends that the water is undoubtedly responsible. It has made calculations, which show that there were more deaths from typhoid fever, always communicated through drinking water, in Albany during the year than there were in Rochester and Buffalo put together, though the population of Albany is only 100,000, and that of the two large cities of Western New York is half a million. The statistics are as follows, the figures showing total deaths in 1895, deaths from typhoid fever, and the percentage of deaths from this disease:

Cities.	Deaths.	Typhoid.	P. C.
Rochester	2,355	38	1.6
Buffalo	2,388	38	1.6
Albany	2,345	182	6.9

The Post-Express adds: "Albany is an old city, it has been badly governed sometimes, and we dare say that its board of health is by no means so vigilant as the board of health here or in Buffalo. But the Albany water is very bad. When Rochester people take up their residence there they are made sick by the water. The contrast between the clear and sparkling Hemlock and the miserable, dirty fluid from the Hudson river, filled with impurities, and a recognized source of disease and death, is so great that Rochesterians wonder that Albanians live at all."

A BIMETALLIC CONFERENCE.
The single gold standard papers are jubilant over the statement made by Chancellor Von Hohenlohe in the German reichstag on Saturday that Germany would not take the initiative in summoning a monetary conference to secure the restoration of bimetalism, because he did not believe that such a conference would bring the question nearer to a practical solution. They fall, however, to refer to another statement made by Prince Hohenlohe in the same speech, as follows: "If, however, delicate and acceptable proposals promising success were made on behalf of another state I should duly consider the question of German representation at a conference." The fact is that the German chancellor has been leaning toward England should take the initiative, and as there is no indication at present of the British government taking such action he prefers to wait.

The German monarchists, who have a majority in the reichstag, are not satisfied with the chancellor's attitude. They do not believe that the co-operation of England is necessary and are anxious that the German government should endeavor to get the powers, independent of England, to join in the proposed conference. They look upon Prince Hohenlohe's action as a mere evasion. If the chancellor had been really in earnest in fulfilling his pledge he would, the bimetalists assert, have pushed the question to a decision by all of the states comprising the Latin monetary union and relied upon them for adhesion with America to get the question of international currency again discussed. The fact is that Prince Hohenlohe has never mooted the question of a monetary conference to the powers beyond sounding England upon the subject. Count Von Moltke, leader of the bimetalists in the reichstag, has just issued a pronouncement, in which he declares that if the system of bimetallic currency is not achieved the United States will ultimately be obliged to resort to exclusive free coinage of silver. The document then proceeds to predict that this will make imports into America from gold currency countries in Europe impossible, and also secure for American exports premiums of nearly 50 per cent, secure the parity of American currency with that of the silver paying countries, and thus obtain for the United States a monopoly of the dealings with those countries.

Meanwhile the English bimetalists are not idle. It will be remembered that they were able to secure the passage by the last house of commons of a resolution favoring bimetalism. A London dispatch says it has been learned that there is a strong bimetallic representation in the present parliament. The committee now numbers 125 members and is much stronger than ever before. The bimetallic question, it is said, will certainly come before parliament during the month of March. What may be accomplished at that time it is impossible to say, but it is not unlikely that a resolution may be passed requesting the Salisbury government to join with the other powers in any monetary conference that may be proposed looking to a solution of the question.

Certainly there is nothing in the situation abroad to discourage bimetalists in the United States. There is a strong sentiment in favor of bimetalism in France as well as in Germany and the other states comprising the Latin monetary union would no doubt be ready to join in a conference that promised to have some definite result. Why should not the American congress pass a joint resolution directing President Cleveland to conduct negotiations with Germany, France and the other powers, outside of England, as to their views respecting a monetary conference? Prince Hohenlohe's statement that he would consider the question of German representation at a conference, providing proposals promising success were made by another state must be construed to mean that he would favorably consider a proposition from this country, which received the concurrence of the members of the Latin union.

A FAR-REACHING DECISION.
It is stated by the St. Paul papers that Attorney General Childs has ruled on a question which may affect, to a considerable extent, the political mix-up of the coming campaign. It is in line with recent decisions of the supreme court in the case of ex-Boller Inspector Sutton, but is wider and more far-reaching. The opinion was called out by Park Commissioner Samuel Hunter, of Minneapolis, who is a conspicuous candidate for one of the Republican nominations for the lower house of the state legislature from the Thirty-second district. That is, he is practically conceding the nomination as the representative of the Sixth ward on the ticket in that district, and as the park board is not a salaried position, the legislative place has charms for Mr. Hunter which he is loath to give up.

It was to ascertain whether his park board affiliations would interfere with his legislative candidacy that he called on the attorney general. Mr. Childs informed Mr. Hunter that he could not see how he could run for the legislature during the term of his park commission, and as that does not expire until 1901, it looks as though Mr. Hunter will have either to withdraw from the legislative canvass or resign his position on the park board.

Carried to its full length, Mr. Childs' opinion involves the practical elimination from the legislative canvasses of the coming campaign any person who holds any municipal, county or state position from his office to notary public. Some of the papers have also asserted that the Sutton decision would affect the eligibility of candidates for congress, but this is incorrect, as each house of congress is the sole judge of the qualifications of its members and no state has ever attempted to interfere in the matter.

W. E. Lee, who recently resigned the superintendency of the state reformatory, is a candidate for delegate-at-large to the Republican national convention. He says he will not enter the field as a candidate for a place on the district delegation, but he believes that his location is such that he can secure support from both the Sixth and Seventh districts as one of the delegates at large. As he stands well in other parts of the state he is a very formidable candidate. His friends are working hard in his behalf. They expect that as Duluth has been long the headquarters of him at least during the next two years this city should be satisfied with naming one of the district delegates.

Congress should not permit the erection of a bridge over the Detroit river at Detroit. The Michigan Central wants to build it. Congress should refuse the request and let the railroad do as it pleases. The bridge would be a serious obstacle to navigation.

The Herald is pleased to learn from the Minneapolis Journal that the debt of Minneapolis has been decreased $500,000 during the past four years, instead of having increased $400,000 annually as recently stated in a St. Paul paper. It is another proof that the St. Paul papers are as unreliable in regard to Twin City indebtedness as they are on the money question.

With an early convention which will declare in favor of Senator Davis, there will be no doubt as to where Minnesota Republicans stand in the presidential convention. The early selection of a solid Davis delegation will add greatly to the senator's chances. It will encourage his friends in other states to make a determined stand in his favor.

The Herald's appeal to the aldermen to confirm the appointment of D. A. Reed as a member of the board of public works was favorably answered. Mr. Reed will be a valuable member of the board, and his experience as an engineer will be particularly valuable in looking after the building of the city water works.

It is noticeable, says the Seattle Times, that in the Middle and Western states the evening paper has, wherever vigorously pushed, easily distanced its morning competitors. This is well illustrated in Duluth, where The Herald leads in circulation, circulation and net earnings.

"Bait" Shea, the Troy, N. Y., murderer, was electrocuted today and Senator Murphy has lost a ward worker. Strong efforts were made to save his life, and a fellow convict in Dannemora prison confessed that he was the murderer. Irish dispatch says it has been learned that there is a strong bimetallic representation in the present parliament.

Gen. Weyler, the new captain general of Cuba, has reached the island state. A reign of terror is expected to be inaugurated. Weyler is said to be an adept in devising methods of cruelty that in the Middle and Western states the evening paper has, wherever vigorously pushed, easily distanced its morning competitors. This is well illustrated in Duluth, where The Herald leads in circulation, circulation and net earnings.

The St. Cloud Journal-Press was dumb yesterday with reference to the remarkable ovation tendered to Mr. Towne at the close of his speech in congress on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. Towne's great reception by the house on Saturday appears to have had a paralyzing effect on the Minneapolis Journal and the St. Paul Dispatch.

The state convention for the election of delegates to the Republican national convention should be held next month or early in April.

A SURE CURE.
New York Weekly: Mrs. Minks—Doctor, my husband is a terrible sufferer from insomnia, and some nights can not sleep a wink. Can you do anything for him? Doctor—Certainly, madam. In the first place he must not go to bed later than 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Minks—He does not.

Doctor—Very well. Wait until he awakens to be in a dose, and then suddenly give him a shake and tell him it is time to go down and fix the kitchen fire. He'll turn over, give a grunt, and sleep like a log till morning.

A Practical Suggestion.

To the Editor of The Herald:
In honor of the birthdays of Lincoln and Washington, the great statesmen of the public schools have two holidays this year. It is thought a good time to teach the love of country by giving them patriotic sentiments to write and commit to memory. My boy repeats what I have learned at school. May I suggest a patriotic exercise?

A large proportion of the children in the lower grades are of foreign parentage. Their home talk is in another language. The only chance they have to learn to be Americans is in the public schools. Their fathers have not all been taught their own citizenship, and many of them will sell their votes as readily as their potatoes, not because they are stupid, but because they have not learned that it is wrong. How are these little boys to know that this country is theirs? They know they have good government while such things are done, unless they are taught in school. Even small boys can understand that some things are not to be sold. It is a betrayal of trust to sell a vote even as for a father to sell his child.

If this teaching is put off until they are older the chance will be lost, for nine-tenths of the children do not reach the high school. The little boy should carry home some of these ideas, and might possibly do his father good. They could then act as a father to their home talk in another language.
